

NEW SENSATIONAL STORY OF INTRIGUE MAY BE UNCOVERED

Name of Big Politician, Not An Official of the Government, Drawn Into Oil Leasing Scandal

COMMITTEE READS TELEGRAMS

Delves Into Messages of Edward B. McLean, Who Kept Fall in Touch With Investigators' Moves

COMMITTEEMEN EXONERATED

No Member of Inquiring Body Communicated by Western Union With Fall or McLean, if Develops

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 26—The name of a big politician—not an official of the government—was drawn into the oil leasing scandal when the Teapot Dome committee delved today into telegrams of Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post.

The identity of the politician was not definitely established in the telegrams but if he is the man the committee thinks he is, a new sensational story of intrigue is to be uncovered.

Uncovering the evidence might be "sufficient to wreck another career." Perusal of the telegram by the committee also revealed:

1—That Fall through McLean was in intimate touch with every thought and action of the investigating committee which was sitting in Washington.

2—That the day Senator Walsh, leading investigator, arrived in Palm Beach to seek evidence from McLean and Fall, the former put in a leased wire from Washington to Palm Beach.

3—That of the 100 or more telegrams sent to McLean and Fall, two-thirds of them were considered "pertinent" to the oil scandal investigation and will be made public later.

4—That no member of the investigation committee communicated by Western Union with Fall or McLean.

By PAUL R. MALLON

(C. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 26—In an effort to trace reports government officials guided the course of former Secretary Fall after the scandal disclosures, the senate Teapot Dome committee today called for telegraph and telephone records.

Senator Tom Walsh took this step when informed Fall had received advice from men high in the government and even, perhaps, some members of the investigating committee.

Strong indications were given that some definite information along this line had been discovered in the files.

WILL NOT ALTER PLAN OF MCCRAY'S DEFENSE

Governor's Indictment by Federal Grand Jury Will Not Affect Marion County Trial

REAFFIRMS HIS INNOCENCE

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26—Attorneys for Governor McCray today announced that his indictment by the federal grand jury would not alter their plans for defending him on indictments returned by the Marion county grand jury.

They are nearly ready for him to go on trial on the charges of larceny, embezzlement, and forgery pending against him in the county court.

After that case is disposed of, they say it will be time to take up the federal charges of fraudulent use of the mails and violation of the national banking laws.

Meanwhile, Governor McCray in a brief statement issued after he had surrendered to the United States Marshal yesterday, reaffirmed his innocence of any wrong doing in connection with his financial affairs.

The governor said his conscience was perfectly clear that he had not intentionally done any wrong, and that when he was given an opportunity to tell his side of the story in court he would be vindicated.

Walsh Passes The Lie to G. O. P. National Committee

Washington, Feb. 26—Characterizing the Republican national committee as an "inveterate liar", Senator Walsh, Montana, leading oil investigator, today challenged any republican senator to support the committee charge he had "fathered" naval oil leasing legislation.

Republican Senators Smoot and Lenroot, past and present chairman of the public lands committee, rose and assured Walsh that in their opinion, his denial of responsibility for naval reserve leasing legislation, was in every particular "correct."

Walsh charged the republican national committee with attempting to "hamper" the investigation by "misrepresentation of facts" in order to bring disrespect upon it and to destroy public confidence in it.

CABINET ADVISORS SEEK A SOLUTION

Senate Leaders Thwart Probe of Daugherty's Administration While President Wrestles With Problem

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCES

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 26—For the second time in two days republican senate leaders this afternoon thwarted democratic aims to begin a probe of Attorney General Daugherty's administration while President Coolidge and his cabinet advisers sought vainly for a solution of the curious situation during several conferences at the White House.

The president was to place before a meeting of his advisers, these alternatives respecting the attorney general:

1—That he be permitted to remain in the cabinet pending a senate hearing of the charges against him. Under this arrangement it was understood that Daugherty would place his resignation in the president's hands at once when the senate inquiry was ended. If the senate acquitted him, Daugherty then could resign without "quitting under fire." If it "convicted" him he would have to resign.

2—That Daugherty be asked to resign at once. This would put the president in direct opposition to John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican national committee and other political leaders but would find him in agreement with senatorial leaders like Lodge, Pepper and Borah.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 26—Abolishment of the mask and a new form of regalia will be one of the changes incorporated in the organization of the "Klan of the North", it was announced here today by local klansmen, who last night voted to withdraw from the present organization and form an independent organization of the mid-west.

It is expected 10 states will be represented at the conference called here for March 24 when the organization will be perfected.

Petitions already have been filed for President Coolidge and Senator Hiram Johnson, but the latter is still a few signatures short.

PRISON MATRON IS CHOKED TO DEATH

Gladys Ellis, Girl Prisoner in Indiana Woman's Prison, Makes Escape After The Murder

MATRON BOUND AND GAGGED

Mrs. Louise Richards, Age 70, Was Probably Attacked When Asleep, And Strangled

Indianapolis, Feb. 26—Gladys Ellis, an inmate of the Indiana Women's Prison here, early today strangled and beat Mrs. Louise Richards, 70, a matron, to death and escaped from the prison.

The girl was confined in the cell for incorrigibles, and Mrs. Richards acting as substitute matron, occupied the adjoining room.

A nurse making her rounds early this morning found Mrs. Richards dead in her bed. She had been strangled and beaten over the head. A gag was in her mouth and she was bound hand and foot with strips of cloth believed to be part of the Ellis girl's dress.

Death was due to strangulation according to the coroner's report.

It was believed that the "murder" of the cell was carelessly left unlocked last night. The girl forced the lock of a wire cage door outside the cell and this gave her access to the room where the aged matron lay sleeping.

Prison officials believe Mrs. Richards was awakened and tried to stop the girl's flight. Blood stains about the room indicated she had struggled hard before she was overpowered.

Police throughout central Indiana were notified to be on the lookout for the Ellis girl, who is also known under the alias of Katherine Rogers.

She was sentenced from Crawfordsville for petit larceny.

MURDER PROBE OPENS

Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 26—Twenty witnesses were ready to appear before the Hamilton county grand jury today in the investigation of the murder of James J. Kincaide, a farmer. Kincaide's body was found in the barn on his farm south of here on Feb. 2. It was at first thought he had been killed in a fall, but later evidence caused the coroner to return a verdict of murder.

"Dirty Work" in The Air

Some "dirty work" in the air—that's the way radio bugs put it when they discuss the fellow who has been musing up the air currents and interfering with local radio fans receiving.

Those who are conversant with radio know just how it is being done, but they have not yet been able to locate the culprit, who has rigged up a sending apparatus, which is unable to accomplish anything except trouble for local receivers.

There is a strict federal law against such practices, and the local person guilty of it may find himself facing Judge Anderson in federal court one of these fine mornings, it is stated.

ARBUCKLE NAMED TO ASSOCIATION

Rushville Man Elected to Membership in Riley Memorial Association For Work in Hospital Campaign

T. M. GREEN WAS A MEMBER

Chosen With Seven Other Men Who Have Been Active in Promoting Interests of Riley Hospital

Formal notice of his election to membership in the James Whitcomb Riley Memorial Association has been received by James T. Arbuckle, governor of Indiana Kiwanis district, from James W. Carr, executive secretary of the association. Mr. Arbuckle's membership is the second to be held by a resident of Rushville, the late Thomas M. Green having been a member of the association.

Mr. Arbuckle was elected to membership along with seven other Indiana men who have been active in promoting the interests of the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, an institution to be devoted exclusively to the care and treatment of crippled children of the state.

All elections to membership in the association are based on service rendered to the hospital. In his letter formally notifying Mr. Arbuckle of his election, Mr. Carr stated he is directed by members of the association to express appreciation of past efforts of Mr. Arbuckle in behalf of the Riley hospital.

Other men elected to membership with Mr. Arbuckle were Robert Heun, Richmond, newly elected governor of Indiana Rotary; Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana university, and Dr. Burton D. Myers, of Bloomington; Dr. John F. Barnhill and Frank E. Floyd, both of Indianapolis; Karl Oesterle, of Muncie, and Arthur Sapp, of Huntington, present governor of the Rotary clubs of Indiana.

RING CLUTTERED UP WITH HATS

Four More Candidates Get Into The Race Today, Three of Them For Clerk of The Court

MAKE FIVE FOR THIS OFFICE

All Are After Republican Nomination—Second Candidate for Treasurer on G. O. P. Ticket Out

The Rush county political ring was all cluttered up today.

It was so full of hats that one who stepped in was bound to step on a hat, following the entrance of four more candidates, all republicans, into the contest for nominations on the county ticket, at the state-wide primary election to be held Monday, May 5.

Three of the four new candidates today are after the nomination for clerk of the circuit court, making five thus far after the same office on the republican ticket.

The fourth primary entrant today is Joseph A. Stevens, who announced that he would again seek the nomination for treasurer on the republican ticket. He was a candidate two years ago and was defeated by Frank Lawrence, the present treasurer, in the primary.

The three who entered the race for the clerk nomination today are:

Donald Kiser of this city, formerly of Union township and at present manager of Childs grocery store in Rushville.

Chester L. Jinks, a young farmer living near New Salem, in Noble township, and son of Link Jinks, well known hog raiser.

Chas. M. DeMunbrun, instructor in mathematics and science in the Arlington high school. Except for the time spent in the army during the world war, Mr. DeMunbrun has been teaching the schools of Rush county since 1913.

The other two candidates for clerk are Loran Martin, the present clerk, and Paul L. Stewart of the Sanitary Dry Cleaners, of this city.

Mr. Stevens has opposition for the treasurer's nomination, Frank Lawrence, the incumbent, having announced several days ago that he would seek renomination and re-election.

Only one democrat so far has announced himself for the primary. He is L. M. Coons of Walker township, who wants the democratic nomination for sheriff.

There is only one republican out for sheriff. He is William Morgan, who was in the primary two years.

POINTS TO FAULTS IN TAXING SYSTEM

Mayor Shank of Indianapolis Says Real Trouble is That Real Estate Bears Most of Burden

SPEAKS AT COURT HOUSE HERE

Candidate for Republican Nomination For Governor Advocates Blue Sky Law With Teeth in it

Lew Shank, mayor of Indianapolis, and a Republican candidate for governor in the primary election, addressed a meeting here Monday night in the assembly room of the court house, which was packed to capacity and with an overflow crowd in the corridors.

Although his talk was billed as a political speech, yet the Indianapolis mayor proved to be a good entertainer, and kept the crowd laughing most of the time, putting wit into his two main topics of discussion, in which he stood out for a "real blue sky law with teeth in it" and for an equalization of taxation.

William J. Henley acted as chairman of the meeting and the speaker was introduced by Glen Miller, republican county chairman.

After several remarks in which he kept the crowd in an uproar, Mayor Shank then said he was going to discuss the taxation question, in which everyone in this day and age was highly interested.

He called attention to the fact that the times have changed since a few years ago, and that these changes have brought about higher taxes to a great extent. People want things, and consequently it takes money, he said, to fulfill their demands.

He reviewed the various kinds of improvements that were being petitioned for daily, and granted because the people were demanding them, and not thinking that every improvement would come home to them on the tax duplicate.

The real trouble with the taxation system, Mayor Shank said, lies in the fact that most of the burden of taxation is on owners of real estate, which in turn puts the burden on the farmers.

At least one-half of the property in the state is represented by stocks, bonds, mortgages, etc., but I'll bet not more than 25 percent of this kind of property is on the tax duplicates," he said. "There can't be any kind of solution of the tax problem until all this kind of property is on the duplicates and the owners made to pay their share as well as the owners of real estate."

The mayor's advocacy of more stringent "blue sky" laws came after he had made a vigorous attack on the Hollings bubble and had scored Secretary of State Ed Jackson for permitting Hollings stock to be sold in

FAYETTE COUNTY CASE HEARD IN COURT HERE

Jury Sits for First Time in More Than Week, Weather Having Delayed Court Business

SUIT FOR $5,000 JUDGMENT

The jury was hearing a suit today in the circuit court, venued here from Fayette county, in which the proceedings are a paternity action, filed by Bertha Whitman of Jackson township, Fayette county, against Ethart Girst of that vicinity.

The action, which is for support of a child, following the failure of the parties to marry, was expected to take most of the day for trial. Several witnesses from Fayette county were present.

The case today is the first for several days as all last week there was little court on account of the weather.

The jury which was hearing the case today, consisted of James Morris, Frank Logan, Edgar Morris, Jerry Brown, Cliff Brown, Charles Holden, Eli Martin, Ben Purcell, William Grocox, Elmer Morris, Ben F. Reeve and O. M. Dale.

The State Savings and Trust Company of Indianapolis has filed suit against Charles C. Miller, et al., the complaint being to foreclose, demanding $5,000 judgment.

Indiana. Mr. Jackson is one of Mayor Shank's opponents in the campaign for Republican gubernatorial nomination. During his address he also attacked the members of the public service commission for their acts that he pointed out as unjust, principally the increase they granted the Indianapolis Water company for higher rates in his home city, which he reviewed in detail, and attempted to show were uncalled for. Before closing his speech, he called attention to the fact that there was a campaign approaching and that the two political parties were to name candidates. He said he was out to be governor on the republican ticket, and was seeking the office because of his executive ability and experience as mayor of Indianapolis. He recounted his honesty in transactions, and defied anyone to cite a case where he had ever been "bought off" or proven guilty of any wrong doing. He said that when he came out for Mayor of Indianapolis on the second attempt, that he was approached by other factors, who offered him a $3,600 job in the state house for four years, if he would not enter the race. The only reference he made to the Ku Klux Klan was near the conclusion of his speech, when he said he belonged to Masonic orders, Moose and about every organization except the Knights of Columbus and the Ku Klux Klan. of the telegraph companies. The committee wants every telegram from Washington addressed to Albert B. Fall and E. B. McLean—his host—or to any of MacLean's attaches—during their so-journ in Palm Beach in December and January. General managers of the local telegraph companies were summoned for this purpose. Additional subpoenas were served today upon telephone officials for records of long distance telephone calls from Washington to Palm Beach to Fall or later while he was in New Orleans. These subpoenas are returnable tomorrow. A subpoena also was issued for service upon G. D. Wahlberg, former secretary to Harry F. Sinclair. When Wahlberg was last on the stand he mentioned something about giving some bonds to "Mr. Hayes". The committee thought at the time "Mr. Hayes" was probably an attaché in the Sinclair New York office but Wahlberg will be asked about it when he returns. Demands have been made upon the committee from certain sources to have Will H. Hayes, former postmaster General, summoned to tell what he knows of the charges by Senator Heflin of Alabama that the leasing of the naval reserves was the result of "a deal" made in the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago, before the late President Harding was nominated as presidential candidate. No intimation has been given by Walsh that he will subpoena Hayes because at this time there is no definite evidence because the committee that Hayes knows anything about the matter. Subpoenas probably will be issued today or tomorrow to bring Sinclair and McLean to the stand later in the week. This move is Walsh's final triumph card and he does not wish to play it until all other "leads" have been followed the end. The survey of brokerage books for records of stock transactions may open up the way for renewed inquiry. A report from the experts who have been conducting the examination is expected to be completed by tomorrow. Carl G. Schuyler, Denver attorney who represented J. Leo Stack in the deal whereby Stack and Frederick G. Bonfils, owner of the Denver Post, obtained $1,000,000 for claims to Teapot Dome, also is to take the stand. Schuyler is reported to have some "sensational correspondence" relating to the deal.

Palmer's Name Mentioned

New York, Feb. 26—The name of former attorney general, A. Mitchell Palmer has been brought into the naval oil lease controversy by Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania. Pinchot, speaking before the Survey Associates, Inc., here last night said that "in 1920 Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, without a fight, turned over $500,000,000 of oil lands from our public domain to the Southern Pacific railroad. "Palmer refused to appeal to the United States Supreme Court from the decision of a lower federal court favorable to the Southern Pacific." Former secretary of the Interior Fall, chief figure in the oil lease investigation was "also involved in the last and most vicious upon the national forests," Pinchot said. "He tried to get them transferred from the department of agriculture to the department of the interior so he could give them away to private interests as he did the oil lands."

Going The Pace

Mayor Lew Shank of Indianapolis, in a political address at the court house, said that people who go the pace should not complain about the expenses.

"It takes money to make the mare go," a truism of some age, although relegated by the advent of the automobile, is just as true today as it was when we depended on actual horsepower to get some place.

People who want to "keep pace with the times" and never want to allow another community to outstrip them in public improvements, need not be surprised when the bill shows up on the tax duplicate.

You can't sign every petition that is presented to you and expect taxes to be reduced. You can't agree to help every other fellow get his road through, by signing his petition, so that they will sign your petition when you want a new road by your place, and at the same time not expect taxes to mount.

The expenses grow in exactly the same proportion as the people spend the money.

Some of us, looking for an alibi, like to blame public officials for apparent exorbitant taxes, but we need only to come back to our own doorsteps to get at the seat of the trouble.

We are not opposed to public improvements, but we do believe that if a man signs a petition for a new road or bridge, he should stand up and take his medicine in the form of higher taxes, and not whine about it.

Too Much Speed

Deaths due to organic diseases of the heart increased during the past year and now exceed those due to any other cause.

It is becoming more apparent that there is too much speed in life today. Men in the prime of life suffer nervous breakdowns just when they should be the most proficient.

Competition in every line of business activity is so highly developed that men have to draw on all of their stored up nervous energy to shoulder continually mounting responsibilities.

Women, in addition to discharging their duties at home, find so many demands upon their time in meeting their social and civil obligations, that they have little time for relaxation and rest.

The pace that the twentieth century has set for us is so strenuous that it is little wonder the heart wears out and ceases to function.

It is about time that we were calling a halt on the modern tendency to put full steam and leave none in reserve for emergency use.

If we don't, the race will degenerate into a misfit people, broken physically, and incapable of carrying on for the betterment of future generations as it should.

Letters to the Editor

Monticello, Ind.,
Feb. 21, 1924Rushville Republican,
Rushville, Ind.
My Dear Sir:

On the Editorial page of the Indianapolis Star of Tuesday, February 19, 1924, it gives a half column of Rush county land values clipped from the Rushville Republican. You seem to bemoan the fact that Rush county lands have decreased in prices far below what they should be and what farms are selling for in other counties of Indiana and in other states.

The fact is other counties in Indiana and in other states are hit just as hard as Rush county and your explanation of the cause is bunk, meaning mental attitude, pure and simple. Ask any of the conservative farmers in Rush county how much net profit he has received in the last three years and he will tell you it has not been over one and one-half percent on the amount his land was assessed for. Now where is there a farmer that can live on that; where is there any business that could survive on that percent of profit; on its capital invested.

Now the mental attitude of Rush county farmers is no different than the farmers in other counties or state. Now just what harm is there in telling the truth?

You seem to think that boosting will give the farmer a greater percent profit, that might work for a business man or even an editor, because you both have a selling price for your products. But the farmer not being organized on a business basis, they deflated him one half in September 1920. The business man and labor men refused to be deflated of course. The business man tells you how much money he lost, but you try to buy a binder or a wagon or a stove and see how much they have come down. Yes I expect the Rushville Republican is selling at the same high price it did during the inflation period.

Now I happened to know some of Rush county land and will say you have as good land as lays out of doors and I will also say this, under present conditions of the farmer there is no man, whether he comes from Oklahoma or Indianapolis, can buy a farm in Rush county or White county, either for that matter, and pay one half down and make the other one half out of the farm as long as conditions are as now. I will make a guess that the Oklahoma man or the Indianapolis man that bought Rush county land, neither one expects to pay for them out of the farm proceeds.

More than likely they were business men with a surplus of money and invested it in those farms with the idea of speculating. Just see what they get for them in two years if farming conditions do not change for the better. You must remember the years of 1919 and three-fourths of 1920 was the inflation period. The actual value of a farm or a business is the net profit it will make you in a given time.

I am very truly, yours,

VICTOR E. HARE,

This Age of Oil

Speaking editorially, the Chicago Tribune, in its issue of February 3, says:

"Virtually every one in the nation is a user of oil and consumption grows at a rapid pace. We have a problem, therefore, not merely of conservation but of supply, and its solution is vital to the material prosperity and progress of the United States."

This able statement seems to us to justify further comment.

"Virtually every one in the nation is a user of oil"—oil in some form enters into the manufacture of every article of commerce. Without it the commodities you use could not be manufactured and sold for the price you pay now.

"Consumption grows at a rapid pace"—to illuminate this statement it is only necessary to show that in the ten states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) there were, on January 1, 1924, 4,855,739 automotive vehicles registered. This is 807,367 more than were registered on January 1, 1923.

"Conservation"—it is a well-known fact that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by means of processes discovered and developed in its own laboratories has contributed more to increasing the yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude than any other refiner. This increased yield was secured without in any way affecting the quality of the gasoline and without touching that portion of the crude which goes into the manufacture of lubricating oils.

"Vital to the material prosperity and progress of the United States"—comment here seems unnecessary as all must recognize the part played by petroleum in "This Age of Oil."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has achieved its signal success in "This Age of Oil" by practicing the principles of fairness, equity and justice.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its position as a leader in the petroleum industry—it is proud of its success—it is proud that the service it has rendered has gained the respect, confidence and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

LIONS POINT TO
SECTIONAL HERE

AND MISSIN' 'EM

Basketball will hold supreme in Rushville over the week end. Fifteen games will be necessary to decide a winner, and they will be played Friday and Saturday—enough basketball to tide one over until next fall.

It will be enough unless someone suggests an all star game or a girl's game before the final contest—which would be too much basketball for one week.

Connersville is thinking about ordering another block of 500 seats for the Richmond regional, following their victory over Rushville last week. On the face of everything it looks like a sure go for the Ikniks, but there are several others over in this county that will put up a fight to stop 'em.

Work hard this week for those fellows, Raleigh, and remember all the time that the fans are behind you. Don't get the "back," because the Connersville team is just an ordinary gang of good fellows that need close watching. Go in to fight and win.

Em Headlee's Green Eyed Monsters from Manilla promise real opposition for the Rushville Lions in their opening game Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Manilla has been known to turn the trick, and if they are the best team, then we're for 'em.

REGARDLESS OF ALL THESE THREATS, THE LIONS ARE NOT GOING TO SIT DOWN AND HAND OVER THE OLD RAG—NOT YET BY A LONG SHOT.

These threats only make the Lions fight harder.

Once more—Let's all boost for a Rush county winner.

BUT WE MISSED ON RUSHVILLE Hittin' 'Em at Rushville proved to be a regular little George Washington, when he predicted Newcastle would win last night.

Side Lights of Connersville is making an appeal for 1,000 rooters from that city for the tourney here this week. Say, leave a place for the rest of the supporters for the teams. We haven't got a gym that will seat 3,000.

The way that Connersville is sitting on top of the world in this tourney business, their rooters can stay at home, save their dimes and go to the Richmond regional.

A REAL DIME TRAP Shootin' 'em of the Indianapolis News has spent all of his thin dimes making a trip over to watch Passiac, N. J., play a couple of games.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S.S.S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S.S.S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S.S.S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine

He says that Coach Blood of the wonder team of the east, might consider a chance to become a Hoosier. We will wager that he will get a dozen offers next week from Indiana schools.

If we were Connersville, Coach Pruitt should send over most of his subs for the tourney here, and not take any chances of getting the regulars injured for the Richmond regional.

Shelbyville drew Sandusky for their opening game. So did Rushville one year. We stopped.

Cambridge City tackles Richmond at two o'clock Friday afternoon in their first game of the tourney, and unless old man Rizio, et al, doesn't get too overconfident, the Morton team won't have much trouble in coming through for the regionals.

Wonder if Smithville, the Tri-state champions, will be heard of anymore. Elwood won the Cincinnati classic last year, and then dropped clear out of sight.

Last year Moscow went to Cincinnati, and got lost at the zoo, for they failed to show up at the sectional tourney here.

Moscow is coming this year, you can bet your sweet life. They tackle Carthage right off the bat, and a battle royal is expected.

THIS DOPE FIEND HAS IT FIGURED OUT—WRONG

There's not much use buying a ticket to the Rushville sectional. A fan over at Connersville has all the games figured out to the points. He has contributed the following to Side Lights, and much to our surprise he put Rushville and Connersville in the final game at night. We don't believe that. Raleigh and Milroy will play that game. Here is what the Connersville dope is:

Dear Side Lights:

How is this for the dope on the Rushville tourney Friday at Push-town:

Friday afternoon: 1:00—Webb to defeat Everton from 10 to 15 points; 2:00—Connersville to defeat Gings from 20 to 25 points; 3:00—Raleigh to defeat Glenwood from 9 to 14 points; 4:00—Alquina to defeat Orange from 3 to 10 points; 7:30—Arlington to defeat Center from 4 to 12 points; 8:30—Milroy to defeat Moscow from 10 to 15 points.

Saturday morning: 9:00—Rushville to defeat Webb from 2 to 9 points; 10:00—Connersville to defeat Raleigh from 7 to 14 points; 11:00—Alquina to defeat Arlington 8 to 12 points.

Saturday afternoon: 2:00—Rushville to defeat Milroy 8 to 14 points; 3:00—Connersville to defeat Alquina from 10 to 15 points; 8:00—Connersville to defeat Rushville 9 to 13 points.

COMMENT FROM TERRE HAUTE

Terre Haute Star, in commenting on the Rushville-Garfield game, said Rushville did not show any class as follows: "The visitors showed a good eye for the basket, but so far as real class is concerned, Rushville does not possess any." The writer, however, probably overlooks that fact that a team can't expect to show much class when up against a team that was so much more beneath it in every department of the game. It's hard for a good team to go strong against an extremely weak outfit, and besides what is the use of working hard and piling up a big score on a weak opponent.

ROMEOS ARE BUMPED OFF
Lose to Morristown in Semi-Finals of Tourney

The Rushville Romeos were defeated in the semi-finals at the Westland invitational tourney in an overtime game last Saturday by the fast Morristown team 31 to 28. The locals went through the first game with flying colors by defeating the Milton aggregation 26 to 10. The Morristown team had Coach Means of Moscow with them, who is well known among basketball fans of this county.

The locals will play the New Salem Independents here Wednesday night at the Modern Appliance building. The Romeos will line up with Moore, Dagler, Culp, Ruby, Davis, Downey, Kelly and Smith.

TRAINING CAMP TABS

Sarasota, Fla.—Light training stunts are on the program laid out by Hughie Jennings for the Giant regulars and rookies training here. Manager McGraw is not due until Friday. Jack Bentley, slugging pitcher, is down to weight and says he will have a big season.

Clearwater, Fla.—Practically all the regulars with the exception of Zach Wheat are here at the Brooklyn training camp or on their way here. Wheat is a holdout. Tommy Griffith, veteran outfielder, was the first to lift one over the fence.

Augusta, Ga.—Golf has been ordered on the state track for the Detroit club in training here. Manager Cobb ordered confiscated several bags of clubs that appeared in the club house and said that the boys were here to get ready for baseball.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Buffalo.—With a fast finish in the six round, during which he pasted Young Stribling, George light-heavyweight, all over the ring, Jimmy Slattery, 19 year old Buffalo middleweight, won a six round decision here last night. The fighting was fairly for five rounds but the decision went to Slattery after he had shown up the Georgia youth in the last round.

Paris—George Carpentier, former European heavyweight champion, has been matched to meet Arthur Townley, British heavyweight in a 15 round match in Vienna on April 27, it was announced today.

New York—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will go on the table today for a minor operation. He expects to leave for California after a rest of two or three days.

New York—Tony Vaccarelli, New York featherweight won a six round decision from Mickey Brown, New York.

East Chicago—Mickie O'Dowd, Muncie, Ind., knocked out Jack Kane, Chicago, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten round bout. O'Dowd knocked Kane down twice in the sixth round. "Tiger" Joe Cline, St. Louis, won a ten round decision over Wannie Smith, of Oklahoma.

PINS ARE FALLING

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 26—The Goldammer Recado ten pin squad held first place in the American bowling congress tournament today, bowling 2,740 points to hurdle the Garrison Cigars who went into second place with 2,732.

Hawthorne Bowling Association No. 3, held third place with three pins needed to tie the Garrison team. Belmont Crescents, runners up in the opening games, acquired fourth position with 2,691.

The pins are beginning to fall with unerring aim with a better class of bowlers coming in, officials said today.

Farce Comedy at Princess The confusion of whiskers jumble things for a certain houseful of people.

That's What We're Hoping At Any Rate

Looks like Connersville sorta has Rushville's goat this season. And Cville evidently tamed them lions last night. Both of these teams play in the same sectional next week end, but we wouldn't bet any money on Connersville at that time, cause we think Rushville kinda held back something last night.

Make Young Players Hustle

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 26—Owners of minor league clubs insist that it would not be practical and would not be good business for them to agree to a restoration of the old draft agreement by which the major leagues were entitled to the best of the minor league players, for the nominal draft price.

Club owners naturally consider business first and there is much to support their argument that it would not be a sound financial move to allow a major league club to draw a star player and pay $5,000 for him when the same player might be sold on the open market for $50,000.

Minor league managers, however, are more inclined to look at the practical side because they are paid to develop a winning team and their salary depends entirely upon the degree of success they meet with.

During the recent baseball meetings here, some very interesting opinions on the draft as it affects the playing standard of the minor leagues were voiced by a former minor league manager, one of the best in the business, who is now affiliated with a prominent major league club.

"I have had my own ideas in the past," he said, "but as my employer was not in favor of the draft, it would have been inconsistent and, at the same time, unwise for me to express my views to the contrary."

"I have always felt, and I feel now, that the draft was a fine thing for baseball because it inspired the player to hustle. You can have good baseball only when the players do hustle."

"Supposing I have two or three good young ball players on my club and they are ambitious to get in the major leagues. I wouldn't give a rap for a young player who didn't aspire to get in the big league. They come to me and ask me if I couldn't do something to get them up on the big ple whose activities form the basis for the side-splitting farce comedy, "Her Temporary Husband," which shows at the Princess theatre today.

Sylvia Breamer, the heroine of this hilarious laugh-provoker, must marry within twenty-four hours to win a fortune. She wants the fortune but not the partner that goes with it. So she marries a graveyard candidate, a "youthful" chap of about ninety-five summers.

Lucky for Owen Moore, her enterprising admirer, the intended groom sports a heavy crop of whiskers. Owen dons cheaters, masquerades as the dying "vietin" and gets married to the girl—then complications.

Before the amusing situation is straightened out almost everyone in the bridal home are "hiding behind the bushes." A gang of ruffians come to kill the bewhiskered bridegroom. Then it is a case of "on agin' off again Finnegan," as the bewhiskered masqueraders try to keep one jump ahead of the bold bad villains.

The picture was made to produce laughs—to be a genuine gloom chaser—and it lives up to its mission with a vengeance.

Engagement Extended

The engagement of "Vanity Fair," which opened at the Castle theatre Monday, has been extended another day and will be held over until Wednesday, it was announced by the management today.

The Ballin screen version of "Vanity Fair" was made in response to requests from picture-goers who had seen his previous productions and had been asked what great novel or play they would like to have Mr. Ballin produce next. The majority of answers were in favor of "Vanity Fair" and Mr. Ballin himself prepared the continuity, going direct to Thackeray's masterpiece for his material and not to any stage version of it.

The Ballin production of "Vanity Fair" stars Mabel Ballin in the role of Becky Sharp and in the cast are such well known names as Hobart Bosworth, Harrison Ford, George Walsh, Earle Foxe, Willard Louis, Eleanor Boardman, Robert Mack and numerous others.

time, and I would tell them, as I have told many young players: 'Get out and hustle and you'll be drafted by some major league club. They like hustlers in the major leagues' and once you get there you'll get plenty of help if you have the right spirit."

"I have observed the contrast in the spirit of young players since the draft was turned down against that of the old days when the majors used to get together at the end of the season and draw the stars from the minors."

"When the draft was working, young players used to hustle from the first to the last game of the season. They were in there all the time. They didn't go wide into a base and they didn't swing at anything that came up to them. They figured that they had a chance to cash in on their extra efforts and they went to it."

"Now they know that when they develop to the point where they are wanted in the majors that their boss will demand some exorbitant sum for them and that they will not get the chance to go up. They get the idea then that they are a major league player and they demand a major league player's salary. If they don't get what they want, they will play for you, but they'll only give you two hours' work a day, and not very serious work at that."

INQUIRY SLOWS UP PENDING ARRESTS

Further Investigation of Slaying of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy Awaits Detention of Irving Zollin

HORTON AND WIFE LOCATED

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 26.—Investigation into the circumstances surrounding the mysterious double killing of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy, underworld characters, slowed up today pending the arrest of Irving Zollin in Columbus, Ohio.

Zollin, sometimes known as Zollars, is said to have lured Maybelle Exley-Duffy from her home at Norwalk, Ohio. He has a police record in several Ohio cities, authorities here announced. Zollin can be arrested within a few hours by Columbus police, Harold Levy, assistant state's attorney said.

Duffy and his newlywed bride, recently of Louisville, Ky., were shot to death in their apartment here last Thursday. Duffy's body was found in a snow drift near the city limits. A card in his pocket led police to the apartment where they found Mrs. Duffy's body on a lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Horton, who shared the apartment with the Duffys, were taken into custody in New Orleans yesterday and will be returned to Chicago as soon as detectives can bring them here. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis were arrested with the Hortons and will also be brought back for questioning.

Uncertain whether the Duffys were murdered as a result of warfare between rival bootlegging bands or by a jealous suitor of Mrs. Duffy, police are delving into the complete record of the slain couple. Already it has led them to the underworlds of Philadelphia, Detroit, Columbus, Louisville and several other cities.

NEW SENSATIONAL STORY OF INTRIGUE MAY BE UNCOVERED

Name of Big Politician, Not An Official of the Government, Drawn Into Oil Leasing Scandal

COMMITTEE READS TELEGRAMS

Delves Into Messages of Edward B. McLean, Who Kept Fall in Touch With Investigators' Moves

COMMITTEEMEN EXONERATED

No Member of Inquiring Body Communicated by Western Union With Fall or McLean, if Develops

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 26—The name of a big politician—not an official of the government—was drawn into the oil leasing scandal when the Teapot Dome committee delved today into telegrams of Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post.

The identity of the politician was not definitely established in the telegrams but if he is the man the committee thinks he is, a new sensational story of intrigue is to be uncovered.

Uncovering the evidence might be "sufficient to wreck another career," Personal of the telegram by the committee also revealed:

1—That Fall through McLean was in intimate touch with every thought and action of the investigating committee which was sitting in Washington.

2—That the day Senator Walsh, leading investigator, arrived in Palm Beach to seek evidence from McLean and Fall, the former put in a leased wire from Washington to Palm Beach.

3—That of the 100 or more telegrams sent to McLean and Fall, two-thirds of them were considered "pertinent" to the oil scandal investigation and will be made public later.

4—That no member of the investigating committee communicated by Western Union with Fall or McLean.

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington Feb. 26—In an effort to trace reports government officials guided the course of former Secretary Fall after the scandal disclosures, the senate Teapot Dome committee today called for telegraph and telephone records.

Senator Tom Walsh took this step when informed Fall had received advice from men high in the government and even, perhaps, some members of the investigating committee.

Strong indications were given that some definite information along this line had been discovered in the files Continued on Page Three

WILL NOT ALTER PLAN OF M'CRAY'S DEFENSE

Governor's Indictment by Federal Grand Jury Will Not Affect Marion County Trial

REAFFIRMS HIS INNOCENCE

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26—Attorneys for Governor McCray today announced that his indictment by the federal grand jury would not alter their plans for defending him on indictments returned by the Marion county grand jury.

They are nearly ready for him to go on trial on the charges of larceny, embezzlement, and forgery pending against him in the county court.

After that case is disposed of, they say it will be time to take up the federal charges of fraudulent use of the mails and violation of the national banking laws.

Meanwhile, Governor McCray in a brief statement issued after he had surrendered to the United States Marshal yesterday, reaffirmed his innocence of any wrong doing in connection with his financial affairs.

The governor said his conscience was perfectly clear that he had not intentionally done any wrong, and that when he was given an opportunity to tell his side of the story in court he would be vindicated.

Walsh Passes The Lie to G. O. P. National Committee

Washington, Feb. 26—Characterizing the Republican national committee as an "invertebrate liar," Senator Walsh, Montana, leading oil investigator, today challenged any republican senator to support the committee charge he had "fathered" naval oil leasing legislation.

Republican Senators Smoot and Lenroot, past and present chairman of the public lands committee, rose and assured Walsh that in their opinion, his denial of responsibility for naval reserve leasing legislation, was in every particular "correct."

Walsh charged the republican national committee with attempting to "hamper" the investigation by "misrepresentation of facts" in order to bring disrespect upon it and to destroy public confidence in it.

CABINET ADVISORS SEEK A SOLUTION

Senate Leaders Thwart Probe of Daugherty's Administration While President Wrestles With Problem

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCES

(By United Press)

Washington, Feb. 26—For the second time in two days republican senate leaders this afternoon thwarted democratic aims to begin a probe of Attorney General Daugherty's administration while President Coolidge and his cabinet advisers sought vainly for a solution of the curious situation during several conferences at the White House.

The president was to place before a meeting of his advisers, these alternatives respecting the attorney general:

1—That he be permitted to remain in the cabinet pending a senate hearing of the charges against him. Under this arrangement it was understood that Daugherty would place his resignation in the president's hands at once when the senate inquiry was ended. If the senate acquitted him, Daugherty then could resign without "quitting under fire." If it "convicted" him he would have to resign.

2—That Daugherty be asked to resign at once. This would put the president in direct opposition to John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican national committee and other political leaders but would find him in agreement with senatorial leaders like Lodge, Pepper and Borah.

PRISON MATRON IS CHOKED TO DEATH

Gladys Ellis, Girl Prisoner in Indiana Woman's Prison, Makes Escape After The Murder

MATRON BOUND AND GAGGED

Mrs. Louise Richards, Age 70. Was Probably Attacked When Asleep, And Strangled

Indianapolis, Feb. 26—Gladys Ellis, an inmate of the Indiana Women's Prison here, early today strangled and beat Mrs. Louise Richards, 70, a matron, to death and escaped from the prison.

The girl was confined in the cell for incorrigibles, and Mrs. Richards acting as substitute matron, occupied the adjoining room.

A nurse making her rounds early this morning found Mrs. Richards dead in her bed. She had been strangled and beaten over the head. A gag was in her mouth and she was bound hand and foot with strips of cloth believed to be part of the Ellis girl's dress.

Death was due to strangulation according to the coroner's report.

It was believed that the murder of the cell was carelessly left unlocked last night. The girl forced the lock of a wire cage door outside the cell and this gave her access to the room where the aged matron lay sleeping.

Prison officials believe Mrs. Richards was awakened and tried to stop the girl's flight. Blood stains about the room indicated she had struggled hard before she was overpowered.

Police throughout central Indiana were notified to be on the lookout for the Ellis girl, who is also known under the alias of Katherine Rogers.

She was sentenced from Crawfordsville for petit larceny.

MURDER PROBE OPENS

Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 26—Twenty witnesses were ready to appear before the Hamilton county grand jury today in the investigation of the murder of James J. Kincaid, a farmer. Kincaid's body was found in the barn on his farm south of here on Feb. 2. It was at first thought he had been killed in a fall, but later evidence caused the coroner to return a verdict of murder.

Dr. H. H. Halley Recites Incidents From Bible, Selected at Random, At Noon Club Meeting

NEW MEMBER IS ADMITTED

Dr. H. H. Halley, who is spending two weeks here in the churches, giving Bible readings nightly spoke to the Rotary club for about thirty minutes today, giving a few short excerpts from the Bible.

His unusual recital of incidents from the Holy Script, selected at random, gripped the interest of members of the club, who marveled at his rare ability.

His first selection was from ecclesiastes, reciting the words of the Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem, which showed the vanity of human courses in seeking pleasure.

He next presented the words of Paul, addressed to his very dear friend whose servant stole money and ran away to Rome. The servant was converted by Paul, while Paul was in prison, and sent back home with the assurance that all would be well with his master.

The closing group or readings were some of the things Jesus said regarding kindness, bringing out the thought that those who do good deeds without thought of reward are promised reward hereafter.

The Rev. E. G. McKibben, president of the Rushville Ministerial association, was a guest of the club.

Bert Mullin was admitted as a new member of the Rotary club.

ARBUCKLE NAMED TO ASSOCIATION

Rushville Man Elected to Membership in Riley Memorial Association For Work in Hospital Campaign

T. M. GREEN WAS A MEMBER

Chosen With Seven Other Men Who Have Been Active in Promoting Interests of Riley Hospital

Formal notice of his election to membership in the James Whitcomb Riley Memorial Association has been received by James T. Arbuckle, governor of Indiana Kiwanis district, from James W. Carr, executive secretary of the association. Mr. Arbuckle's membership is the second to be held by a resident of Rushville, the late Thomas M. Green having been a member of the association.

Mr. Arbuckle was elected to membership along with seven other Indiana men who have been active in promoting the interests of the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, an institution to be devoted exclusively to the care and treatment of crippled children of the state.

All elections to membership in the association are based on service rendered to the hospital. In his letter formally notifying Mr. Arbuckle of his election, Mr. Carr stated he is directed by members of the association to express appreciation of past efforts of Mr. Arbuckle in behalf of the Riley hospital.

Other men elected to membership with Mr. Arbuckle were Robert Heun Richmond, newly elected governor of Indiana Rotary; Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana university, and Dr. Burton D. Myers, of Bloomington; Dr. John F. Barnhill and Frank E. Floyd, both of Indianapolis; Karl Osterle, of Muncie, and Arthur Sapp, of Huntington, present governor of the Rotary clubs of Indiana.

RING CLUTTERED UP WITH HATS

Four More Candidates Get Into The Race Today, Three of Them For Clerk of The Court

MAKE FIVE FOR THIS OFFICE

All Are After Republican Nomination—Second Candidate for Treasurer on G. O. P. Ticket Out

The Rush county political ring was all cluttered up today.

It was so full of hats that one who stepped in was bound to step on a hat, following the entrance of four more candidates, all republicans, into the contest for nominations on the county ticket, at the state-wide primary election to be held Monday, May 5.

Three of the four new candidates today are after the nomination for clerk of the circuit court, making five thus far after the same office on the republican ticket.

The fourth primary entrant today is Joseph A. Stevens, who announced that he would again seek the nomination for treasurer on the republican ticket. He was a candidate two years ago and was defeated by Frank Lawrence, the present treasurer, in the primary.

The three who entered the race for the clerk nomination today are:

Donald Kiser of this city, formerly of Union township and at present manager of Childs grocery store in Rushville.

Chester L. Jinks, a young farmer living near New Salem, in Noble township, and son of Link Jinks, well known hog raiser.

Chas. M. DeMunbrun, instructor in mathematics and science in the Arlington high school. Except for the time spent in the army during the world war, Mr. DeMunbrun has been teaching the schools of Rush county since 1913.

The other two candidates for clerk are Loren Martin, the present clerk, and Paul L. Stewart of the Sanitary Dry Cleaners, of this city.

Mr. Stevens has opposition for the treasurer's nomination, Frank Lawrence, the incumbent, having announced several days ago that he would seek renomination and re-election.

Only one democrat so far has announced himself for the primary. He is L. M. Coons of Walker township, who wants the democratic nomination for sheriff.

There is only one republican out for sheriff. He is William Morgan, who was in the primary two years ago. Continued on Page Three

The First Presbyterian church was again crowded Monday night for the recital of Biblical stories by Dr. Halley. He will be at the First Baptist church tonight and Wednesday night and at the First United Presbyterian church Thursday and Friday nights.

POINTS TO FAULTS IN TAXING SYSTEM

Mayer Shank of Indianapolis Says Real Trouble is That Real Estate Bears Most of Burden

SPEAKS AT COURT HOUSE HERE

Candidate for Republican Nomination For Governor Advocates Blue Sky Law With Teeth in it

Lew Shank, mayor of Indianapolis, and a Republican candidate for governor in the primary election, addressed a meeting here Monday night in the assembly room of the court house, which was packed to capacity and with an overflow crowd in the corridors.

Although his talk was billed as a political speech, yet the Indianapolis mayor proved to be a good entertainer, and kept the crowd laughing most of the time, putting wit into his two main topics of discussion, in which he stood out for a "real blue sky law with teeth in it" and for an equalization of taxation.

William J. Henley acted as chairman of the meeting and the speaker was introduced by Glen Miller, republican county chairman.

After several remarks in which he kept the crowd in an uproar, Mayor Shank then said he was going to discuss the taxation question, in which everyone in this day and age was highly interested.

He called attention to the fact that the times have changed since a few years ago, and that these changes have brought about higher taxes to a great extent. People want things, and consequently it takes money, he said, to fulfill their demands.

He reviewed the various kinds of improvements that were being petitioned for daily, and granted because the people were demanding them, and not thinking that every improvement would come home to them on the tax duplicate.

The real trouble with the taxation system, Mayor Shank said, lies in the fact that most of the burden of taxation is on owners of real estate, which in turn puts the burden on the farmers.

At least one-half of the property in the state is represented by stocks, bonds, mortgages, etc., but I'll bet not more than 25 percent of this kind of property is on the tax duplicates," he said. "There can't be any kind of solution of the tax problem until all this kind of property is on the duplicates and the owners made to pay their share as well as the owners of real estate."

The mayor's advocacy of more stringent "blue sky" laws came after he had made a vigorous attack on the Dollings bubble and had scored Secretary of State Ed Jackson for permitting Dollings stock to be sold in Indianapolis. Continued on Page Three

Jury Sits for First Time in More Than Week, Weather Having Delayed Court Business

SUIT FOR $5,000 JUDGMENT

The jury was hearing a suit today in the circuit court, venued here from Fayette county, in which the proceedings are a paternity action, filed by Bertha Whitman of Jackson township, Fayette county, against Ethart Girst of that vicinity.

The action, which is for support of a child, following the failure of the parties to marry, was expected to take most of the day for trial. Several witnesses from Fayette county were present.

The case today is the first for several days as all last week there was little court on account of the weather.

The jury which was hearing the case today, consisted of James Morris, Frank Logan, Edgar Morris, Jerry Brown, Cliff Brown, Charles Holden, Eli Martin, Ben Purcell, William Grocox, Elmer Morris, Ben F. Reeve and O. M. Dale.

The State Savings and Trust Company of Indianapolis has filed suit against Charles C. Miller, et al., the complaint being to foreclose, demanding $5,000 judgment.

McLean—his host—or to any of McLean's attaches—during their sojourn in Palm Beach in December and January. General managers of the local telegraph companies were summoned for this purpose.

Additional subpoenas were served today upon telephone officials for records of long distance telephone calls from Washington to Palm Beach to Fall or later while he was in New Orleans. These subpoenas are returnable tomorrow.

A subpoena also was issued for service upon G. D. Wahlberg, former secretary to Harry F. Sinclair. When Wahlberg was last on the stand he mentioned something about giving some bonds to "Mr. Hayes". The committee thought at the time "Mr. Hayes" was probably an attaché in the Sinclair New York office but Wahlberg will be asked about it when he returns.

Demands have been made upon the committee from certain sources to have Will H. Hayes, former postmaster General, summoned to tell what he knows of the charges by Senator Heflin of Alabama that the leasing of the naval reserves was the result of "a deal" made in the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago, before the late President Harding was nominated as presidential candidate.

No intimation has been given by Walsh that he will subpoena Hayes because at this time there is no definite evidence because the committee that Hayes knows anything about the matter.

Subpoenas probably will be issued today or tomorrow to bring Sinclair and McLean to the stand later in the week. This move is Walsh's final triumph card and he does not wish to play it until all other "leads" have been followed the end.

The survey of brokerage books for records of stock transactions may open up the way for renewed inquiry. A report from the experts who have been conducting the examination is expected to be completed by tomorrow.

Carl G. Schuyler, Denver attorney who represented J. Leo Stack in the deal whereby Stack and Frederick G. Bonfils, owner of the Denver Post, obtained $1,000,000 for claims to Teapot Dome, also is to take the stand. Schuyler is reported to have some "sensational correspondence" relating to the deal.

Palmer's Name Mentioned

New York, Feb. 26.—The name of former attorney general, A. Mitchell Palmer has been brought into the naval oil lease controversy by Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

Pinchot, speaking before the Survey Associates, Inc., here last night said that "in 1920 Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, without a fight, turned over $500,000,000 of oil lands from our public domain to the Southern Pacific railroad."

"Palmer refused to appeal to the United States Supreme Court from the decision of a lower federal court favorable to the Southern Pacific."

Former secretary of the Interior Fall, chief figure in the oil lease investigation was "also involved in the last and most vicious upon the national forests," Pinchot said. "He tried to get them transferred from the department of agriculture to the department of he interior so he could give them away to private interests as he did the oil lands."

Indiana. Mr. Jackson is one of Mayor Shank's opponents in the campaign for Republican gubernatorial nomination.

During his address he also attacked the members of the public service commission for their acts that he pointed out as unjust, principally the increase they granted the Indianapolis Water company for higher rates in his home city, which he reviewed in detail, and attempted to show were uncalled for.

Before closing his speech, he called attention to the fact that there was a campaign approaching and that the two political parties were to name candidates. He said he was out to be governor on the republican ticket, and was seeking the office because of his executive ability and experience as mayor of Indianapolis.

He recounted his honesty in transactions, and defied anyone to cite a case where he had ever been "bought off" or proven guilty of any wrong doing. He said that when he came out for Mayor of Indianapolis on the second attempt, that he was approached by other factors, who offered him a $3,600 job in the state house for four years, if he would not enter the race.

The only reference he made to the Ku Klux Klan was near the conclusion of his speech, when he said he belonged to Masonic orders, Moose and about every organization except the Knights of Columbus and the Ku Klux Klan.

"There's not much danger that I'll borrow any money if I'm elected," he explained, smiling, while speaking of Governor McCray. "I doubt very much, by golly, if any Governor of Indiana could go into a bank now and borrow money."

"Say, the first thing they'd ask him would be what business he was in and when he answered he was in the Governor business, those bankers would come right back with a 'No, no'."

Will K. Penrod, Mayor Shank's campaign manager, was here last night, and expressed himself as being well pleased with the success of the meeting, and the interest displayed locally in the candidacy of the Indianapolis mayor.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole. Musterole is a counter-irritant that relieves congestion (which is what a cold really is) and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister. Just rub it on with your finger-tips. First you will feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness. To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of His people shall He take away from off all the earth; for the Lord hath spoken it.—Isaiah: 25: 8.

Going The Pace

Mayor Lew Shank of Indianapolis, in a political address at the court house, said that people who go the pace should not complain about the expenses.

"It takes money to make the mare go," a truism of some age, although relegated by the advent of the automobile, is just as true today as it was when we depended on actual horsepower to get some place.

People who want to "keep pace with the times" and never want to allow another community to outstrip them in public improvements, need not be surprised when the bill shows up on the tax duplicate.

You can't sign every petition that is presented to you and expect taxes to be reduced. You can't agree to help every other fellow get his road through, by signing his petition, so that they will sign your petition when you want a new road by your place, and at the same time not expect taxes to mount.

The expenses grow in exactly the same proportion as the people spend the money.

Some of us, looking for an alibi, like to blame public officials for apparent exorbitant taxes, but we need only to come back to our own doorsteps to get at the seat of the trouble.

We are not opposed to public improvements, but we do believe that if a man signs a petition for a new road or bridge, he should stand up and take his medicine in the form of higher taxes, and not whine about it.

Too Much Speed

Deaths due to organic diseases of the heart increased during the past year and now exceed those due to any other cause.

It is becoming more apparent that there is too much speed in life today. Men in the prime of life suffer nervous breakdowns just when they should be the most proficient.

Competition in every line of business activity is so highly developed that men have to draw on all of their stored up nervous energy to shoulder continually mounting responsibilities.

Women, in addition to discharging their duties at home, find so many demands upon in their time in meeting their social and civil obligations, that they have little time for relaxation and rest.

The pace that the twentieth century has set for us is so strenuous that it is little wonder the heart wears out and ceases to function.

It is about time that we were calling a halt on the modern tendency to put full steam and leave none in reserve for emergency use.

If we don't, the race will degenerate into a misfit people, broken physically, and incapable of carrying on for the betterment of future generations as it should.

Letters to the Editor

Monticello, Ind.,
Feb. 21, 1924Rushville Republican,
Rushville, Ind.
My Dear Sir:

On the Editorial page of the Indianapolis Star of Tuesday, February 19, 1924, it gives a half column of Rush county land values clipped from the Rushville Republican. You seem to bemoan the fact that Rush county lands have decreased in prices far below what they should be and what farms are selling for in other counties of Indiana and in other states.

The fact is other counties in Indiana and in other states are hit just as hard as Rush county and your explanation of the cause is bunk, meaning mental attitude, pure and simple. Ask any of the conservative farmers in Rush county how much net profit he has received in the last three years and he will tell you it has not been over one and one-half percent on the amount his land was assessed for. Now where is there a farmer that can live on that; where is there any business that could survive on that percent of profit; on its capital invested.

Now the mental attitude of Rush county farmers is no different than the farmers in other counties or state. Now just what harm is there in telling the truth?

You seem to think that boosting will give the farmer a greater percent profit, that might work for a business man or even an editor, because you both have a selling price for your products. But the farmer not being organized on a business basis, they deflated him one-half in September 1920. The business man and labor men refused to be deflated of course. The business man tells you how much money he lost, but you try to buy a binder or a wagon or a stove and see how much they have come down. Yes I expect the Rushville Republican is selling at the same high price it did during the inflation period.

Now I happened to know some of Rush county land and will say you have as good land as lays out of doors and I will also say this, under present conditions of the farmer there is no man, whether he comes from Oklahoma or Indianapolis, can buy a farm in Rush county or White county; either for that matter, and pay one-half down and make the other one-half out of the farm as long as conditions are as now. I will make a guess that the Oklahoma man or the Indianapolis man that bought Rush county land, neither one expects to pay for them out of the farm proceeds.

More than likely they were business men with a surplus of money and invested it in those farms with the idea of speculating. Just see what they get for them in two years if farming conditions do not change for the better. You must remember the years of 1919 and three-fourths of 1920 was the inflation period. The actual value of a farm or a business is the net profit it will make you in a given time.

I am very truly, yours,
VICTOR E. HARE,
Monticello, Ind.
White County.

The Hodge-Podge

By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Men who settle world problems in a smoking car can't settle a dog fight at home.

People quickest to condemn are generally the last to praise.

Mr. Doheny, of Teapot Dome oil inquiry fame, is reported to have been "broke" at forty, but is now the third richest American. All of which leads us to believe that even Rip Van Winkle might have amounted to something if he hadn't died young.

Exertion from chopping ice caused a man's death, but sawing wood never killed anyone.

Colgate university owns an egg ten million years old, which beats the packing house record.

Why doesn't someone invent a way to enforce the prohibition law like the income tax law is enforced?

It takes all sorts of people to make up a community, but we can get along very well without the scandal mongers.

Women Need Swamp-Root

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

This Age of Oil

Speaking editorially, the Chicago Tribune, in its issue of February 3, says:

"Virtually every one in the nation is a user of oil and consumption grows at a rapid pace. We have a problem, therefore, not merely of conservation but of supply, and its solution is vital to the material prosperity and progress of the United States."

This able statement seems to us to justify further comment.

"Virtually every one in the nation is a user of oil"—oil in some form enters into the manufacture of every article of commerce. Without it the commodities you use could not be manufactured and sold for the price you pay now.

"Consumption grows at a rapid pace"—to illuminate this statement it is only necessary to show that in the ten states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) there were, on January 1, 1924, 4,855,739 automotive vehicles registered. This is 807,367 more than were registered on January 1, 1923.

"Conservation"—it is a well-known fact that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by means of processes discovered and developed in its own laboratories has contributed more to increasing the yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude than any other refiner. This increased yield was secured without in any way affecting the quality of the gasoline and without touching that portion of the crude which goes into the manufacture of lubricating oils.

"Vital to the material prosperity and progress of the United States"—comment here seems unnecessary as all must recognize the part played by petroleum in "This Age of Oil."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has achieved its signal success in "This Age of Oil" by practicing the principles of fairness, equity and justice.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its position as a leader in the petroleum industry—it is proud of its success—it is proud that the service it has rendered has gained the respect, confidence and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

SECTIONAL HERE

Basketball will hold supreme in Rushville over the week end. Fifteen games will be necessary to decide a winner, and they will be played Friday and Saturday—enough basketball to tide one over until next fall.

It will be enough unless someone suggests an all star game or a girl's game before the final contest—which would be too much basketball for one week.

Connersville is thinking about ordering another block of 500 seats for the Richmond regional, following their victory over Rushville last week. On the face of everything it looks like a sure go for the Hawks, but there are several others over in this county that will put up a fight to stop 'em.

Work hard this week for those fellows, Raleigh, and remember all the time that the fans are behind you. Don't get the "back," because the Connersville team is just an ordinary gang of good fellows that need close watching. Go in to fight and win.

Em Headlee's Green Eyed Monsters from Manila promise real opposition for the Rushville Lions in their opening game Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Manila has been known to turn the trick, and if they are the best team, then we're for 'em.

Webb then has hopes of beating Rushville. They not only have hopes, they are SURE of it, which sounds terrible threatening like. Webb also expects to romp over Connersville in the final game.

REGARDLESS OF ALL THESE THREATS, THE LIONS ARE NOT GOING TO SIT DOWN AND HAND OVER THE OLD BAG—NOT YET BY A LONG SHOT.

These threats only make the Lions fight harder.

Once more—Let's all boost for a Rush county winner.

BUT WE MISSED ON RUSHVILLE Hittin' 'Em at Rushville proved to be a regular little George Washington, when he predicted Newcastle would win last night.

—Newcastle Courier

Side Lights of Connersville is making an appeal for 1,000 rooters from that city for the tourney here this week. Say, leave a place for the rest of the supporters for the teams. We haven't got a gym that will seat 3,000.

The way that Connersville is sitting on top of the world in this tourney business, their rooters can stay at home, save their dimes and go to the Richmond regional.

A REAL DIME TRAP
Shootin' 'em of the Indianapolis News has spent all of his thin dimes making a trip over to watch Passine, N. J., play at couple of games.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S.S.S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S.S.S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S.S.S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S.S.S. that did it."

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. The World's Best Blood Medicine

He says that Coach Blood of the wonder team of the east, might consider a chance to become a Hoosier. We will wager that he will get a dozen offers next week from Indiana schools.

If we were Connersville, Coach Pruitt should send over most of his subs for the tourney here, and not take any chances of getting the regulars injured for the Richmond regional.

Shelbyville drew Sandusky for their opening game. So did Rushville one year. We stopped.

Cambridge City takes Richmond at two o'clock Friday afternoon in their first game of the tourney, and unless old man Rizio, et al, doesn't get too overconfident, the Morton team won't have much trouble in coming through for the regionals.

Wonder if Smithville, the Tri-state champions, will be heard of anymore. Elwood won the Cincinnati classic last year, and then dropped clear out of sight.

Last year Moscow went to Cincinnati, and got lost at the zoo, for they failed to show up at the sectional tourney here.

Moscow is coming this year, you can bet your sweet life. They tackle Carthage right off the bat, and a battle royal is expected.

THIS DOPE FIEND HAS IT FIGURED OUT—WRONG

There's not much use buying a ticket to the Rushville sectional. A fan over at Connersville has all the games figured out to the points. He has contributed the following to Side Lights, and much to our surprise he put Rushville and Connersville in the final game at night. We don't believe that. Raleigh and Milroy will play that game. Here is what the Connersville dope is:

Dear Side Lights:

How is this for the dope on the Rushville tourney Friday at Push-town:

Friday morning: 9:00—Milroy to defeat New Salem from 10 to 15 points; 10:00—Moscow to defeat Carthage from 4 to 9 points; 11:00—Rushville to defeat Manila from 15 to 20 points.

Friday afternoon: 1:00—Webb to defeat Everton from 10 to 15 points; 2:00—Connersville to defeat Gings from 20 to 25 points; 3:00—Raleigh to defeat Glenwood from 9 to 14 points; 4:00—Alquina to defeat Orange from 3 to 10 points; 7:30—Arlington to defeat Center from 4 to 12 points; 8:30—Milroy to defeat Moscow from 10 to 15 points.

Saturday morning: 9:00—Rushville to defeat Webb from 2 to 9 points; 10:00—Connersville to defeat Raleigh from 7 to 14 points; 11:00—Alquina to defeat Arlington 8 to 12 points.

Saturday afternoon: 2:00—Rushville to defeat Milroy 8 to 14 points; 3:00—Connersville to defeat Alquina from 10 to 15 points; 8:00—Connersville to defeat Rushville 9 to 13 points.

A TIP TO RALEIGH

Raleigh plays Glenwood in their first game. Don't show your stuff Raleigh in that game. Use subs, and save your best for the Connersville game. Remember that Connersville will have spies on you in that game. Play your rottenest, but win, and then show how you can play against Connersville.

COMMENT FROM TERRE HAUTE

Terre Haute Star, in commenting on the Rushville-Garfield game, said Rushville did not show any class as follows: "The visitors showed a good eye for the basket, but so far as real class is concerned, Rushville does not possess any." The writer, however, probably overlooks that fact that a team can't expect to show much class when up against a team that was so much more beneath it in every department of the game. It's hard for a good team to go strong against an extremely weak outfit, and besides what is the use of working hard and piling up a big score on a weak opponent.

ROMEOS ARE BUMPED OFF

Lose to Morristown in Semi-Finals of Tourney

The Rushville Romeos were defeated in the semi-finals at the Westland invitational tourney in an overtime game last Saturday by the fast Morristown team 31 to 28. The locals went through the first game with flying colors by defeating the Milton aggregation 26 to 10. The Morristown team had Coach Means of Moscow with them, who is well known among basketball fans of this county.

The locals will play the New Salem Independents here Wednesday night at the Modern Appliance building. The Romeos will line up with Moore, Dagler, Culp, Ruby, Davis, Downey, Kelly and Smith.

TRAINING CAMP TABS

Sarasota, Fla.—Light training stunts are on the program laid out by Hughey Jennings for the Giant regulars and rookies training here. Manager McGraw is not due until Friday. Jack Bentley, slugging pitcher, is down to weight and says he will have a big season.

Clearwater, Fla.—Practically all the regulars with the exception of Zach Wheat are here at the Brooklyn training camp or on their way here. Wheat is a holdout. Tommy Griffith, veteran outfielder, was the first to lift one over the fence.

Augusta, Ga.—Golf has been ordered on the side track for the Detroit club in training here. Manager Cobb ordered confiscated several bags of clubs that appeared in the club house and said that the boys were here to get ready for baseball.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Buffalo.—With a fast finish in the six round, during which he pasted Young Stribling, George light-heavyweight, all over the ring, Jimmy Slattery, 19 year old Buffalo middleweight, won a six round decision here last night. The fighting was fairly for five rounds but the decision went to Slattery after he had shown up the Georgia youth in the last round.

Paris—George Carpentier, former European heavyweight champion, has been matched to meet Arthur Townley, British heavyweight in a 15 round match in Vienna on April 27, it was announced today.

New York—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will go on the table today for a minor operation. He expects to leave for California after a rest of two or three days.

New York—Tony Vaccarelli, New York featherweight won a six round decision from Mickey Brown, New York.

East Chicago—Mickie O'Dowd, Muncie, Ind., knocked out Jack Kane, Chicago, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten round bout. O'Dowd knocked Kane down twice in the sixth round. "Tiger" Joe Cline, St. Louis, won a ten round decision over Warne Smith, of Oklahoma.

That's What We're Hoping At Any Rate

Looks like Connersville sorta has Rushville's goat this season. And Cville evidently tamed the lions last night. Both of these teams play in the same sectional next week end, but we wouldn't bet any money on Connersville at that time, cause we think Rushville kinda held back something last night.

Make Young Players Hustle

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 26.—Owners of minor league clubs insist that it would not be practical and would not be good business for them to agree to a restoration of the old draft agreement by which the major leagues were entitled to the best of the minor league players, for the nominal draft price.

Club owners naturally consider business first and there is much to support their argument that it would not be a sound financial move to allow a major league club to draw a star player and pay $5,000 for him when the same player might be sold on the open market for $50,000.

Minor league managers, however, are more inclined to look at the practical side because they are paid to develop a winning team and their salary depends entirely upon the degree of success they meet with.

During the recent baseball meetings here, some very interesting opinions on the draft as it affects the playing standard of the minor leagues were voiced by a former minor league manager, one of the best in the business, who is now affiliated with a prominent major league club.

"I have had my own ideas in the past," he said, "but as my employer was not in favor of the draft, it would have been inconsistent and, at the same time, unwise for me to express my views to the contrary."

"I have always felt, and I feel now, that the draft was a fine thing for baseball and that it made the minor leagues because it inspired the player to hustle. You can have good baseball only when the players do hustle."

"Supposing I have two or three good young ball players on my club and they are ambitious to get in the major leagues. I wouldn't give a rap for a young player who didn't aspire to get in the big league. They come to me and ask me if I couldn't do something to get them up on the big ple whose activities form the basis for the side-splitting farce comedy, "Her Temporary Husband," which shows at the Princess theatre today.

Sylvia Breamer, the heroine of this hilarious laugh-provoker, must marry within twenty-four hours to win a fortune. She wants the fortune but not the partner that goes with it. So she marries a graveyard candidate, a "youthful" chap of about ninety-five summers.

Lucky for Owen Moore, her enterprising admirer, the intended groom sports a heavy crop of whiskers. Owen dons cheaters, masquerades as the dying "victim" and gets married to the girl—then complications.

Before the amusing situation is straightened out almost everyone in the bridal home are "hiding behind the bushes." A gang of ruffians come to kill the bewhiskered bridegroom. Then it is a case of "on ag'in off ag'in Finnegan," as the bewhiskered masqueraders try to keep one jump ahead of the bold bad villains.

The picture was made to produce laughs—to be a genuine gloom chaser—and it lives up to its mission with a vengeance.

Engagement Extended

The engagement of "Vanity Fair," which opened at the Castle theatre Monday, has been extended another day and will be held over until Wednesday, it was announced by the management today.

The Ballin screen version of "Vanity Fair" was made in response to requests from picture-goers who had seen his previous productions and had been asked what great novel or play they would like to have Mr. Ballin produce next. The majority of answers were in favor of "Vanity Fair" and Mr. Ballin himself prepared the continuity, going direct to Thackeray's masterpiece for his material and not to any stage version of it.

The Ballin production of "Vanity Fair" stars Mabel Ballin in the role of Becky Sharp and in the cast are such well known names as Robert Bosworth, Harrison Ford, George Walsh, Earle Foxe, Willard Louis, Eleanor Boardman, Robert Mack and numerous others.

INQUIRY SLOWS UP PENDING ARRESTS

Further Investigation of Slaying of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy Awaits Detention of Irving Zollin

HORTON AND WIFE LOCATED

(By United Press). Chicago, Feb. 26—Investigation into the circumstances surrounding the mysterious double killing of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy, underworld characters, slowed up today pending the arrest of Irving Zollin in Columbus, Ohio.

Zollin, sometimes known as Zollars, is said to have lured Maybelle Exley-Duffy from her home at Norwalk, Ohio. He has a police record in several Ohio cities, authorities here announced. Zollin can be arrested within a few hours by Columbus police, Harold Levy, assistant state's attorney said.

Duffy and his newlywed bride, recently of Louisville, Ky., were shot to death in their apartment here last Thursday. Duffy's body was found in a snow drift near the city limits. A card in his pocket led police to the apartment where they found Mrs. Duffy's body on a lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Horton, who shared the apartment with the Duffy's were taken into custody in New Orleans yesterday and will be returned to Chicago as soon as detectives can bring them here. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis were arrested with the Hortons and will also be brought back for questioning.

Uncertain whether the Duffy's were murdered as a result of warfare between rival bootlegging bands or by a jealous suitor of Mrs. Duffy, police are delving into the complete record of the slain couple. Already it has led them to the underworld of Philadelphia, Detroit, Columbus, Louisville and several other cities.
